The Midlothian Business Alliance is devoted to creating a strong and vital business community.

Our Mission Statement

The Midlothian Business Alliance brings together business professionals, neighbors, community leaders, and government officials to share information, build relationships, and collaborate on issues and activities affecting the Midlothian, Virginia area.

The MBA serves as a forum for the open exchange of information and provides opportunities to strengthen relationships, helping the Midlothian / Western Chesterfield area become an even better place to live, work, and play. The MBA does not advocate or take positions on any political, legal or regulatory matters.

Paying members of MBA have full access to the online MBA directory of members and can participate in all MBA programs and events.

As you can see, a busy activity schedule is planned for the year. Don't miss out! Become a member today!

The MBA works with other community organizations and individuals on a wide array of projects, events and programs.

For example, the MBA cooperates with the Midlothian Communications Committee in funding the free communitywide online directory at MidlothianVA.com.

The MBA also works with  the local Chamber of Commerce and the various programs of the county government as well as the schools.

We also join with other civic groups such as the Midlothian Day Foundation and the Chesterfield County Police in offering programs on security and safety.

Additionally, new local businesses are offered the opportunity to introduce themselves at MBA lunch forums.

Take the time to learn more about MBA and how you can make a difference in the Midlothian community.
